

D-Day Ohio Invites You!

Join with us and your fellow servicemen and women as we celebrate the preservation of liberty and freedom. Regardless of where you served, in Europe, the Pacific or right here at home, your time in service will be honored and remembered as reenactors from all across the United States and Canada will recreate your life and times in service at

D-Day Conneaut 2019!

As living historians we rely on you to help us in assuring that your legacy is told as accurately and as expertly as possible.

We NEED your help in getting it right, so join us!

Commemorating the 75th Anniversary of D-Day

Join Us as We Honor You!

August 16th and 17th, 2019

To best plan your attendance please use this form to contact our WWII/Korean Era Veteran Liaison, Eric Montgomery.

D-Day Conneaut is a FREE living history event of the WWII Era and is held in Conneaut Ohio, a small town just inside the Ohio/Pennsylvania border on the shores of Lake Erie.

Since 1999 D-Day Conneaut has attracted over 275,000 spectators and thousands of reenactors. Featuring troop encampments, displays & battle recreations the event takes us back in time to that Longest Day, June 6th 1944.

Veterans from ALL Era's are Welcome!

We want you!

All Veterans and their families of any era are welcomed to attend D-Day Conneaut. At this time special attention is being extended to WWII and Korean Era Veterans. By completing the questionnaire below, I will customize your name tag which will indicate your branch of service, rank/rating, unit, and commendations received while in service. Please check off all that apply along with your address and information about your service.

Please return this card to WWII/Korean Era Veteran Liaison, Eric Montgomery...
